Directions for walking and cycling to 'Errecaldia'

Errecaldia lies on the Chemin de Saint Jacques, the Camino and the GR10, GR65 and GR78. All of these routes join at the Porte Saint Jacques and then drop down the Rue de la Citadelle to the heart of Saint Pied de Port. Errecaldia lies 120m to the east of the porte, look out for our yellow bed-and-breakfast signboard.

From the town centre find the Office de Tourisme, opposite Les Pyrenees Hotel. Behind it, looking uphill, you will see the archway of the Porte de France in the Citadelle wall. Go through it, and straight on up the cobbled street (Rue de France).

At the end, turn left, and up Rue de la Citadelle. As you go through the Porte Saint Jacques, a UNESCO heritage site, the road becomes the Chemin de la Porte Saint Jacques, and you will find Errecaldia on the left near the top of the rise, the second building on the left after the porte. Look out for our yellow B+B sign board.

By road, from the D933 / D918 go through the town centre of Saint Jean Pied de Port, and then look for D401 signposted Caro, a shallow right. After 500m, take a very sharp right, signposted for the Chemin de Saint Jacques. After 200m, look out for our yellow B+B sign board on the right.
